UK-regulated forex brokerage ActivTrades further expanded its international presence with a new office in Dubai, which opened doors on Wednesday. The office will service clients from the UAE and the surrounding countries. The move was inspired by the increasing demand for forex-related services in the Middle East region.

“The number of clients from the Middle East has increased over recent years and Dubai is fast becoming a business hub of the world. Our new office will bring us closer to our clients and allow us to explore some of the many opportunities the United Arab Emirates and the Middle East have to offer,” Alex Pusco, ActivTrades founder and CEO.

London-based ActivTrades is a financial markets trader, active in the forex, contracts for difference (CFDs), and spread betting markets. Its product portfolio also includes indices, shares, treasuries, and commodities. It is licensed and regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority (FCA). It is also regulated by the Dubai Financial Services Authority (DFSA).
