

Wednesday 01, March 2017 by Jessica Combes

ActivTrades announces opening of Dubai office in DIFC

ActivTrades PLC has announced its Dubai office opening in the Dubai International Financial Centre (DIFC).

Share

PRINT THIS ARTICLE

Based on a license by the Dubai Financial Services Authority (DFSA), its first in the region. ActivTrades, a global regulated brokers dealing in foreign exchange (Forex) and Contract for Differences (CFDs) is one of the fastest growing brokerages in the UK. After covering the Middle East region for five years, it established it was the right time to open an office in Dubai and consolidate its presence in the region. It plans to hold seminars led by experts in Forex trading who will help new investors get started, as well as offer experienced insight on the complexities of today's volatile market.

ActivTrades provides its clients services for online trading on foreign Exchange (Forex) and Contracts for Difference (CFD's) which include indices, commodities and shares through its own ActivTrader platform as well as the MetaTrader platform. This offers clients advanced platform technologies, informative seminars and webinars led by industry experts, in-depth analysis and news as well as an award-winning 24/7 support team.

"We recognised an increasing engagement from our Middle East clients who make up a significant portion of our overall client base. There were two elements to our decision to open our office in Dubai. Firstly, as a company, we understand the need to interact with our clients face-to-face in this region and therefore we have our most experienced Arabic speaking team to support this objective. Secondly, by our presence on the ground here, we want to help our clients and prospective customers understand the advantages of working with the regulated firms,” said Georges Batrouni, Manager, ActivTrades Middle East.

ActivTrades will run in-person seminars and training courses on regularly basis starting from the end of March and clients will also have access to international webinars to gain access to the award-winning products that ActivTrades offers.